TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be we'l to consider what has been done to make the journey to your 'Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT,
General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

The Spaniards in Cuba.

The city of Havana is raised to the highest pitch of excitement on account of the consent of the Madrid government to the terms of the United States. American citizens residing there are under continual apprehensions for their safety. The emissaries of the Casino Espagnol are busy in bringing to bear the infernal fashion of secret espionage and assassination upon citizens of the United States, who are there attending to business, ships and munitions of war are being procured by the Cubans, who thus place themselves in an attitude of rebellion to Spain, and the work of fortifying their coast, and strengthening the defences which are already built, goes on.

A British naval officer once forced his way into the presence of a Bourbon King of Naples, laid an offensive and defensive treaty with Great Britain on the table, and drawing his watch, gave his majesty forty-five minutes in which to make up his mind, and sign the treaty. So great was the terror inspired by British valor that his majesty complied. Some similar exhibition of American spirit, which would beard the insolent Spaniard under the guns of Moro Castle, would be gratifying to our public. If the Captain General of Cuba cannot enforce compliance with Spanish authority, it will be for the United States to make a demonstration of their power, from the turrets of their monitors, and the broadsides of their ships of war.

An Elastic Currency.

An elastic currency—that is, a circulation that can be increased or diminished as the wants of each season demand—is very desirable, but seems impracticable. In the fall and winter the full volume of the currency is needed for trade. The grain must be brought to the seaboard, and shipped abroad, and the cotton must be sold and carried to the looms. Balances of all kinds are settled, and taxes usually paid during these seasons.

But during the summer, business and trade are relaxed. The laboratory of Nature is in full blast, growing and maturing the crops which are the cause of the activity of the later season. An immense amount of the money which is required to meet the demands of legitimate trade during the winter ought to be retired. But it is not. Speculation is too active in the United States to lock up a dollar. The rates of interest are too high to permit a single day to pass without the usance for money; and the consequences are that when the trade of the country again is on the flood, the currency is too often beyond the reach of the banks and merchants.

When, as was the case during the present year, the money which is out on call is demanded and not returned, the stocks pledged as collaterals are forced upon the market, and a panic and afterwards a collapse ensues. The securities fail to realize the amount for which they were hypothecated, and the suspension of business and a general financial derangement, are the forerunners of pecuniary disaster.

How to prevent this locking up of the currency of the country, and at the same time give the holders of it interes on it for the time it is not employed, is a problem which must be solved by Congress. That body is responsible for all the deficiencies of the present system, and its wisdom and honesty must find the remedy.

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, Dec, 4, 1873.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the provision of an act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, ratified the 3rd day of March 1873, entitled "an act to submit the proposed amendments of the Constitution to the people of the State for ratification or rejection," an election was held in the several counties of the State on the first Thursday in August last, at which it was submitted to the people of the State, qualified to vote, whether the 7th Section of Article 1st of the Constitution ratified by the people of North Carolina on the 21st, 22nd and 23d days of April, 1868, should be altered and amended to read as follows:

"Section 6. The State shall never assume, or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave,"

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote, "whether the 4th section of the 5th article of said Constitution, should be stricken out," relating to taxation to pay the State debt and interest.

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote, whether the second section of the second article of the said Constitution should be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet biennially on the third Monday in November, and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly. Neither House shall proceed upon public buisness unless a majority of all the members are actually present."

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote, whether the 6th section of the 3rd Article of said Constitution should be amended by striking out the word "annually" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "biennially," so as to conform to the provisions respecting the sessions of the General Assembly, so as to read as follows:

Sec. 6. The Governor shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons, after conviction, for all offenses (except in cases of impeachment) upon such conditions as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. He shall biennally communicate to the General Assembly each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon granted, stating the name of each convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, the date of commutation, pardon or reprieve, and the reasons therefor."

And whereas it was also submitted to the people of the State, qualified to vote whether the 5th section of the 2d article of said constitution should be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 5. The said Senate District shall be so altered by the General Assembly at the first session after the return of every enumeration taken by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain as nearly as may be an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote whether the 1st section of the 3d article, of the said constitution, should be amended to read as follows,

"Sec. 1. The Executive Department shall consist of a Governor, (in whom shall be vested the supreme executive power of the State,) a Lieutenant Governor, a Secretary of State, an Auditor, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of Public Instruction, and an Attorney General, who shall be elected for a term of four years by the qualified electors of the State at the same time and places, and in the same manner as members of the General Assembly are elected. Their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next after their election, and continue until their successors are elected and qualified. Provided, that the officers first elected shall assume the duties of their office ten days after the approval of this constitution by the Congress of the United States, and shall hold their offices four years from and after the first day of January, 1869."

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote, whether the 13th section of said article should be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 13. The respective duties of the Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Attorney General, shall be prescribed by law. If the office of any of said officers shall be vacated by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to appoint another until the disability be removed, or until his successor be elected and qualified. Every such vacancy shall be filled by election at the first general election that occurs more than thirty days after the vacancy has taken place, and the person chosen shall hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term fixed in the first section of this article."

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote, whether the 4th section of the 3rd Article of the said Constitution should be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 4. The Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, and Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall constitute, ex officio, the Council of State, who shall advise the Governor in the execution of his office, and three of whom shall constitute a quorum; their advice and proceedings in this capacity shall be entered in a journal, to be kept for this purpose exclusively, and signed by the members present, from any part of which any member may dissent; and such journal shall be placed before the General Assembly when called for by either House. The Attorney General shall be, ex officio, the legal adviser of the Executive Department."

And whereas at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote, whether the 7th section of the 9th Article of the said Constitution should be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 7. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Auditor, Superintendent of Public Instruction and Attorney General shall constitute a State Board of Education."

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote, "whether sections 2 and 3 of the 4th Article of said Constitution should be stricken out," being the provisions which refers to the appointment and duties of the Code Commissioners.

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State, qualified to vote, whether section 5 of the 5th Article of said Constitution should be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 6. The property belonging to the State or to municipal corporations shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitchen furnitnre, the mechanical and agricultural implements of mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments or any other personal property to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualihed to vote, whether section 5 of the 9th Article of said Constitution should be stricken out and the following inserted in lieu thereof:

"Sec. 5. The General Assembly shall have power to provide for the election of Trustees of the University of North Carolina, in whom, when chosen, shall be vested all the privileges, rights, franchises and endowments, heretofore in any wise granted to or conferred upon the Trustees of said University; and the General Assembly may make such provisions, laws, and regulations, from time to time, as may be necessary and expedient for the maintenance and management of said University."

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State qualified to vote, "whether sections 13, 14 and 15 of the 9th Article of said Constitution should be stricken out," relating to the University of North Carolina.

And whereas, at said election it was also submitted to the people of the State, qualified to vote, whether the 7th section of the 14th Article of the said Constitution should be altered so that said section shall read as follows:

"Sec. 7. No person who shall hold any office or place of trust or profit under the United States, or any department thereof, or under this State, or under any other State, or government, shall hold or exercise any other office or place of trust or profit under the authority of this State, or be eligible to a seat in either House of the General Assembly: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to officers in the militia, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Public Charities or Commissioners for special purposes."

And whereas, the result of the voting upon the said proposed amendments and alterations of said Constitution, in the several counties of the State, has been certified and returned to me according to law, and having carefully compared the said returns in conformity to said act in the presence of the Secretary of State, the Auditor and Treasurer, from which comparison it appears that there were cast at said election in regard to an alteration of the Constitution in relation to the Public Debt

Now, therefore, I, TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina do issue this my Proclamation, and do hereby make known to all the good people of the State of North Carolina that the said proposed alterations and amendments of the constitution of North Carolina have been approved and ratified by the people of North Carolina, and are now a part of the Constitution of this State.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina to be hereto affixed.

Done at the City of Raleigh, on the first Monday in December, A. D., 1873, and of American Independence the 98th year.

The Railroad Consolidation Bill has passed its third reading in the Senate, by a vote of 32 to 5.

Arrived.—The Berger Family and Sol Smith Russell have arrived. We expect to see the Opera House filled to witness the first class performances given by these favorites.

Read the advertisement of S. Louis & Co. They carry one of the largest stocks in the State, and persons who would wish to buy judiciously, should call on them.

The residence of Mr. John Barker, on Castle, between Fourth and Fifth streets, was entered on Saturday night, between 12 o'clock and daybreak, and robbed of $200 in currency.

Clothing is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

Some of the finest beef we ever saw in this city, is hanging at Stall No. 23, in the Market House, occupied by Mr. Thomas A. Watson. This lot, which is only a specimen of what "Tom" usually keeps, came from Ashe county. We have tried it, and find it nice and juicy. Call on him.

Burglars attempted to effect an entrance into the residence of Mr. James M. McGowan on Saturday night. Some noise was made which attracted the attention of some of the family and called forth cries of help from one of the ladies. The maruders left, probably determined to be more fortunate in their next attempt.

Reception Committees.—From Dr W. W. Harriss, the Chairman of the General Committees, we received the following:

City Committee—Col. Roger Moore, L. E. Rice, S. H. Fishblate.

Produce Exchange—Col. J. L. Cantwell, J. W. Hinson, S. W. Vick.

Agricultural Association—Maj. M. P. Taylor, Dr. T. B. Carr, Wilkes Morris, Capt. W. A. Cumming, Dr. W. W. Harriss.

We are requested to ask all persons who can accommodate with board and lodging, or lodging or board, will apprise either one of the members of the joint committees of their locality and number they can provide for.

"Took Him In."—On Saturday night, one of the hostlers in attendance with the racers intended to trot at our Fair, was made the victim of misplaced confidence to the tune of $125. He was in company with a man whom he had seen at one or two of the recent Fairs held in the State, and handed him a letter containing the money, to admire the beautiful manner in which the envelope was directed. The confidence man admired the chirography, and also the money. His admiration for the "scads" knew no bounds, his joy was unspeakable, and he managed to get the desired article. Suddenly remembering important business elsewhere, he left in a manner which would have done credit to "Warren the wanderer."

Euchred.—Saturday evening a couple of little colored boys made a raid on the old blind colored man who is employed to pick moss in the rooms under the Journal building occupied by Mr. Vincent as an Upholstering establishment, and Mr. Scott the Gas Fitter and Plummer. The boys rocked the old man until he ran at them, and then the scoundrels ran around to the back door, sneaked in and showed a partiality for a pair of clippers and some pieces of lead pipes. They were seen carrying off their booty. One was caught and put in jail to await an adjudication of his case by W. M. Harriss, J. P., this morning, the other being rather fleet of foot evaded his pursuers.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Coolish.

— Gold is 109¼.

— Beware of pickpockets.

— The Berger family to-night.

— Very disagreeable yesterday.

— S. G. Hall does fine printing.

— Lots of fast horses in the city.

— The age of wisdom—the Insurance Age.

— We want a ticket to the Gift Concert.

— Many adventurers have come to the Fair.

— The Fair begins to-morrow. Let all assist.

— The good folks went to church yesterday.

— Never try to borrow an umbrella on a rainy day.

— Chapman Sisters are to be here Wednesday night.

— Read the proclamation of the Governor in another column.

— Now is the time to plant advertisements for the Fair and Christmas.

— If there is a man who is not "blue" in these times, we should be glad to see him

— Collectors now run their feet off trying to collect their little bills—but they don't seem to collect.

— Visitors to the Fair will do well to give Mr. Weill a call, and purchase fine dry goods very cheap. He has an elegant line, and deserves patronage.

— Bishop Atkinson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Ambler, officiated at St. James' Church yesterday, as the Rev. Dr. Watson still continues too ill to attend to his duties.

Saturday Night Sketches.

'Twas cloudy all day, with a chilly drizzle at times, that made one draw his clothing closer about him, and hasten to some friendly fireside for comfort.—One of those days when the air seems to penetrate through the warmest of clothing and chill to the bones; when one is in a perpetual state of "goose flesh" all day, with the streets sloppy and generally disagreeable. The dull, leaden clouds obscure the sun so completely that the gas is lighted before 5 o'clock, and the city settles down to a rainy Saturday night—the second one in over a year's time. Though the almanac "says moon," not a glimpse is visible, and our city fathers, wiser than those in some larger cities, require the street lamps to be lighted, which adds much to our comfort to-night. Every one who has pockets, hastens along with his hands in them, eager to finish the duties of the week and to get out of the dampness, though there is no positive rain. The mist, too heavy to be called a fog and too light to be called a rain, gives every one an uncomfortable feeling, though very few umbrellas are seen, while the eaves manage, by dint o great economy, to keep up a constant dripping as the moments fly by.

Wandering into a prominent jewelry establishment, we find an unsophisticated colored man from the country, anxious to purchase a new watch key. He don't like the plain keys, and examines some gold ones. Disgusted at the merchant, who charges two dollars and a half for so little a key, he says, "Mister, I don't want none of these; I want a key with a diamond in the end. I always thought I'd like a diamond watch key." "How large a diamond do you want?" asks the genial dealer. "Oh, I ain't particular; about as large as the end of my finger, I reckon, would do." The value of such a key is explained to him, and, rolling up his eyes in astonishment, he exclaims, "Whew, two hundred and fifty dollars? Mister, I don't want none of yer diamonds;" and dashes off in disgust into the dampness. The panic prices even of the precious stones fail to tempt him, and he is gone. We presume his ambition has received a severe check, and that he will never sigh for a diamond key again. Rolling rosin out of the water for one dollar a day, is hardly sufficiently remunerative, all things considered, to enable one to purchase diamonds often.

Out in the mist, near the Market House we find a small crowd attracted before a spring lifting machine. Two men have it in charge, mutely though eloquently illustrating the manner of helping each other. One has lost an arm and the other a leg, and we cannot help but sympathise with them as they stand shivering by their flickering lamp, to earn a small pittance with which to gain some of the necessaries of life.—"One for five and three for ten cents," shouts one of the parties to the waiting crowd. A man comes up and hands his nickel to the man with crutches, who appears to be the cashier of the concern. Standing upon the platform, he grasps the handles and lifts. "Three hundred and fifty pounds, sir; a very good lift," says he of the one arm as he adjusts the guage. The experimentor vanishes from his temporary prominence, and the cry is again heard, wailing out into the darkness, "One for five and three for ten cents."

Near at hand is another itinerant with the inevitable lung tester, without which no Fair can be considered a success, and around which are always to be seen ambitious blowers. Three young colored girls approach and the watchful attendant immediately tenders them a complimentary blow. "Now young ladies I will explain to you the condition of your lungs. Just take this tube in your mouth—that's right, now blow." Slowly the indicator rises and the amount is marked. "You have fine lungs, Miss, now let your friend try."—Again the indicator rises and the Professor says, "I am sorry to tell you that your lungs are very weak; now Miss you may try." The young ladies retire and splash along the street, while rude masculine male men are required to deposite a small consideration for the coveted information.

A sudden noise up the street and away dash scores of idlers to see the cause.—The cry is raised, "a fight, a fight," but the steady policeman hugs his club closely in his arms, and exclaims to the jostling runners, "I don't believe there is any fight up there, any how." And he is right. Only a broken glass—nothing more. The streets again assume their accustomed monotony, and the runners after sight-seeing return into their former obscurity. The business of the night is rapidly completed, and ere the midnight hour, the streets are given up to the thieves now infesting the city, and the guardians of the night watching for them.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

[Condensed from the Raleigh News.]

SIXTEENTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.

Friday, Dec. 5.

Senate met at 11 o'clock, Lieutenant Governor in the chair.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Cunningham, the bill to prevent fraud in the sale of fertilizers, &c., which was the special order for 12 o'clock yesterday, and pressed out by the consolidation bill, was made the special order for to-day.

Reports from Standing Committees were submitted.

Messages Received.

Messages were received from the House announcing the passage of several Senate bills, and transmitting several bills asking the concurrence of the Senate, all of which were appropriately referred; also transmitting a resolution asking a report from the State Geologist in regard to certain matters, which was adopted.

Also a resolution, passed by the House, inviting ex-Governor W. A. Graham to deliver a lecture before the present General Assembly on the authenticity of the Mecklenburg Declaration.

Mr. Avera moved to lay the resolution on the table, on which motion Mr. Waring called the ayes and nays. The motion prevailed by 25 ayes to 13 nays.

Special Order.

The hour for the Special Order having arrived, the bill to prevent fraud in the sale of commercial manures or fertilizers, introduced by Mr. Norwood, it was taken up.

Mr. Cunningham, after stating that Mr. Norwood, the introducer of the bill was absent on account of sickness, advocated at some length the neessity of a statute law on this subject, and the importance to the farmers of the bill.

Mr. Gudger desired to know wherein the bill differed from the one already on the statute books.

Mr. Cunningham said that the ingredients of the bill were different, and answered the purposes much better than the one on the statute. The Committee to whom the bill was referred considered this matter when in session, and reported favorably.

Mr. Gudger did not wish to be understood as resisting the bill, yet he thought there was but very little difference in the two bills. He would vote for its passage on its second reading, but would desire its third reading to be postponed.

Mr. Cunningham agreed to the postponement, and the bill passed its second reading.

At one o'clock the Consolidation Railroad Bill was resumed as the special order.

The amendment of Mr. Murphy to strike out line 7, section 17 of the bill which reads, "either by working them (penitentiary convicts) in chain gangs or otherwise," failed.

Mr. Welch offered an amendment as a substitute for the 11th sec., which only changes its phraseology, and not the substance of the section. Adopted.

The bill passed its third reading with the above amendments by a vote of 32 to 5.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr. Murphy, a bill to prevent the desecration of the Sabbath. The bill provides a stringent law against the sale of liquors on the Sabbath. Referred.

By Mr. Waring, a bill to raise revenue and protect sheep. Referred.

By Mr. Horton, a bill to issue grants for vacant lands. Referred.

Motions and Resolutions.

The following concurrent resolutions were taken up:

Resolution offered by King, requesting our Senators and Representatives in Congress to secure a law to refund to the people the cotton tax of 1868-'9. Adopted.

Rules Suspended.

Under suspension of the rules, Mr. Cowles moved that the vote of the Senate concurring in the House amendment to cede a part of the lot 99, in the city of Raleigh to the United States Government be reconsidered and that motion be laid on the table. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Avera, the vote on yesterday to concur with the House resolution in regard to adjourning on the 15th was reconsidered and a joint Committee of Conference appointed.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

According to adjournment, Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order at 11 a. m.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

A number of petitions were introduced and disposed of.

By Mr. Moss, a resolution in favor of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. Referred.

By Mr. Guyther, a resolution in regard to the back pay salary bill. Calendar.

By Mr. Hanner, a bill to submit to the qualified voters of towns and cities the question of a general prohibitory liquor law. Referred.

By Mr. Bryson, of Jackson, a bill to establish a new county by the name of Chatooga. Referred.

By Mr. Watson, a bill to require Justices of the Peace to give bond. Referred.

By Mr. Moring, a bill to amend section 11, chapter 201, laws of 1868-'9, in regard to the penalty of guardians' bonds. Referred.

By Mr. Bean, a bill to limit a day's work of employees in cotton factories, mills, &c., to ten hours. Referred.

By Mr. Moss, a bill to appoint a Public Guardian. Referred.

By Mr. Johns, a bill to authorize the Dan River, Coal Fields Railroad to purchase the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad. Referred.

By Mr. Reid, of Mecklenburg, a bill to make the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace final in certain criminal cases. Referred.

The bill to incorporate the town of Whiteville, Columbus county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Hughes, the bill to create a Mechanies' and Laborers' lein law and for other purposes, was taken up and passed its several reading after considerable discussion.

The bill in relation to foreign insurance companies, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Adjourned.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

LATEST NEWS,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the POST is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Resolutions

Concerning Bridges over Wilmington and Weldon Railroad in the City of Wilmington, N. C,

WHEREAS, THE "CUT" MADE BY the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company in the construction of their Railroad, where the same crosses or intersects the streets in the city greatly impedes the passage of travellers and tends to the manifest injury of the citizens,

AND WHEREAS, The Board of Aldermen are advised that it is the duty of the said Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company to erect and maintain bridges across such cuts where the same cross or intersect the streets in the city, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, That in their opinion the public necessity demands the erection of bridges at the following points where the said Railroad intersects the following streets to wit: Second Street, Third Street, Fifth Street, Sixth Street, Seventh Street and MacRae Street.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the width of the bridges over said Railroad cut or excavation on Second Street should be thirty feet wide, on Third Street forty feet wide, on Fifth Street forty feet wide, on Sixth Street Twenty-five feet wide, on Seventh Street, twenty feet wide, on McRae Street twenty feet wide.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the Bridge known as Boney Bridge, where the Railroad crosses Fourth Street, is so narrow as to impede the passage of travellers on the same, and that a bridge of fifty feet wide would be necessary to accommodate the public at that point,

RESOLVED, That the Mayor cause a copy of these Resolutions to be served upon the President or Managing Agent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, and that he direct the officer serving the notice to return a copy thereof, with the manner of service, to the office of the Clerk and Treasurer of the City.

The above Preamble and Resolutions were passed by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting November 21st, 1873.

CITY TAXES.

Office Treasurer and Collector,

CITY OF WILMINGTON, N. C.,
November 20th, 1873.

THE financial requirements of the City are such as to render it absolutely necessary that the amount of City Taxes on Real Estate and Personal Property, due 15th June last, and yet remaining unpaid, should be collected forthwith.

I am therefore directed where the City Taxes are not paid on or before 1st December proximo, to ADVERTISE and SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION all such property, as no longer indulgence will be given.
